

Alex J. Mechaber, MD, MBA, MACP

Vice President, USMLE, NBME

Professor Emeritus, University of Miami Miller School of Medicine

Alex J. Mechaber, MD, MBA, MACP is the Vice President for USMLE at National Board of Medical Examiners (NBME) and Professor Emeritus at the University of Miami Miller School of Medicine (UMMSM).

Dr. Mechaber and his NBME team oversee policies, operations, strategy and research for the United States Medical Licensing Exam program, the three-step examination for medical licensure in the United States, which is co-sponsored by the Federation of State Medical Boards.

Prior to joining NBME, Dr. Mechaber served the UMMSM as professor of medicine, senior associate dean for undergraduate education and the Bernard J. Fogel Endowed Chair in Medical Education (1998 to 2020).

Dr. Mechaber received his BS, MD, and MBA from the University of Miami. He went on to complete a primary care internal medicine residency and chief medical residency at George Washington University Medical Center and a general internal medicine fellowship at UNC at Chapel Hill School of Medicine.

Dr. Mechaber is a Diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine and Master of the American College of Physicians.