

President

Kourtney Gibson, B.B.A. '03

President, Loop Capital

Kourtney Gibson is president of Loop Capital Markets. She oversees all brand-building efforts at Loop Capital, in addition to cultivating and enhancing major strategic client relationships across the firm's various business lines. Gibson works in conjunction with the chairman and CEO in the development of strategic initiatives and translating the company's vision and strategy into action plans to be carried out by its various business units. She serves on the firm's Management Committee and Fairness and Valuation Committee.

Possessing nearly 20 years of experience at the firm, Gibson has extensive knowledge and involvement across all of Loop Capital's platforms and has been intimately involved in their growth. She is also a CNBC contributor, providing insight, analysis, and outlook on the markets for various shows on the network.

Gibson received a Master of Business Administration from Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management and a Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of Miami. In addition, she is a member of The Economic Club of Chicago, The Chicago Network, and the Treasury Market Practices Group. She sits on the boards of trustees at Viterbo University and the University of Miami, as well as the boards of the University of Miami Alumni Association (president) and The Chicago Scholars Foundation (chair). Gibson holds Series 7, 57, 24 and 63 FINRA registrations.