Brian Itzkowitz, B.B.A. ’90

Chair, Membership Committee, University of Miami President’s Council

Brian Itzkowitz is a seasoned social enterprise leader with over 25 years of experience in the nonprofit sector. Since 2021, he has served as president and CEO of Palmetto Goodwill, where he drives innovation and strategic partnerships to expand services and maximize community impact across lower South Carolina.

Throughout his career, Itzkowitz has focused on creating pathways to economic independence through education, training, and employment. He has held executive roles at both Goodwill Industries International and regional Goodwill organizations, earning national recognition. His accolades include multiple awards from Goodwill Industries International, the Arkansas Business Nonprofit Executive of the Year Award, and the Charleston Metro Chamber’s Diversity Champion Award.

A recognized thought leader, Itzkowitz is a frequent speaker on strategic planning, community engagement, and nonprofit leadership. He earned his B.B.A. in international finance and marketing from the University of Miami, and actively serves on nonprofit boards and civic organizations. He and his wife, Dawn, are passionate advocates for underserved communities.