

Leadership Structure

A new Executive Board structure was established to ensure a robust volunteer-led 'Canes Community as well as smooth leadership succession planning in the future.

The 'Canes Community Executive Boards consists of the following officers:

- Immediate Past-President
- President
- President-Elect
- Vice President
- Secretary
- Executive Committee Members at Large (minimum of 2 members)

Executive Board Expectations

OVERVIEW

An effective 'Canes Community Executive board fosters volunteer training and development opportunities to establish a pipeline of future leaders.

Candidates for consideration must:

- Have a rich history of demonstrated regional engagement and service to the University
- Exemplify strong leadership and relationship-building skills
- Philanthropically support the University of Miami
- Be dedicated to advancing the goals and objectives outlined by the 'Canes Community Executive Board

TERM OF OFFICE

Executive Board tenure is concurrent with the University's fiscal year (June 1st to May 31st). Officers are elected to serve a two-year term. Individuals may be re-elected to serve an additional two-year term.

RELEASE FROM DUTIES

All 'Canes Community Executive Board officers are subject to release from duties by the University's Office of Engagement for non-compliance with the University of Miami's Alumni Association Constitution & Bylaws or the 'Canes Community Best Practices Guidelines. 'Canes Community Executive Board officers who engage in behavior or activities that do not represent the University of Miami in a positive and professional manner are also subject to release from duties at the discretion of the UM Alumni Association.
