Biography

M. Camila Cote

Assurance Operations Leader – Latin
America

Assurance Partner

Miami, Florida

Camila, an audit partner in the Assurance practice of Ernst & Young LLP with over 25 years of experience in public accounting, is the control and methodology leader for the LAN Region.

Professional experience

As a member of the Latin America Assurance leadership team, Camila is responsible for operations and finance matters across the region.

Previously, Camila also held Quality leadership roles across Latin America North since July 2021 broadening the Quality Network and developing sustainable processes serving our audit practices from Mexico to Peru.

Prior to joining the Latin America leadership team, Camila provided professional services to multinational clients, including family-owned and private equity-backed companies. She has wide-ranging experience with financial statement auditing and in performing services related to major transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, and divestitures. Further, Camila has worked closely with clients resolving complex accounting matters and technical consultations.

Camila has extensive international experience. She has worked in professional practice leading internal inspection activities and participating in other quality initiatives in South America, Mexico, Central America, the Caribbean and Israel. Previously, she spent two years in the Transaction Advisory Services practice in Madrid, Spain, where she served clients in Europe and the Middle East.

Camila also previously served as the Miami Managing Partner and a member of the Inclusiveness Advisory Council for the Americas area of EY.
