Liz B. White, B.S.C. ’92

Chair, Strategic Engagement Committee

Liz B. White is director of retail distribution for Bridge Specialty Group, the wholesale division of Brown & Brown, Inc., where she played a key role in its formation and growth. White began her insurance career at Marsh & McLennan in 1993 and co-founded Peachtree Special Risk Brokers in 2000, later serving as its president. She specializes in placing commercial property insurance for complex risks across sectors, including public entities, real estate, and manufacturing.

With over 25 years at Brown & Brown, White has earned numerous accolades, including Lifetime Top Gun, Mentor of the Year, and Lifetime Producer. She holds insurance licenses in 34 states and professional designations including Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) and Associate in Surplus Lines Insurance (ASLI). White earned her B.S.C. in communication and English from the University of Miami in 1992 and an M.B.A. from Georgia State University in 1995. She also serves on the advisory board of Georgia State’s Maurice R. Greenberg School of Risk Science.
