

LAUREN SPAHN, M.M. '13, J.D. '13
Partner, Shackelford, Bowen, McKinley &
Norton LLP

Lauren M. Spahn is a partner at Shackelford, Bowen, McKinley & Norton, LLP, in the firm's Nashville office. Spahn represents the legal and business interests of recording artists, songwriters, publishers, talent buyers, producers, managers, record labels, technology companies, and other entertainment industry clients. She also handles complex transactional and litigation matters related to copyright, trademark, and intellectual property law. Spahn received a master's degree in music business and entertainment industries and a law degree, both cum laude, from the University of Miami in 2013.

In addition to serving as legal counsel for the Women's Music Business Association, Spahn currently serves on the Nashville Bar Association Young Lawyer's Division Board, where she is a co-chair for the Arts Immersion gala, and on the young professional boards for the T.J. Martell Foundation and the International Entertainment Buyer's Association. She is a voting member of the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences and the Country Music Association.

In 2019, Spahn was recognized as one of Nashville's Top 30 Under 30 and as a finalist in the Nashville Emerging Leader Awards. She was named to Leadership Music's Class of 2019 and the Grammy NEXT Class of 2020, and was recently featured in MusicRow's 2021 InCharge issue.
