

DARREN DUPRIEST, B.B.A. '91

Founder & CEO, Validity Screening Solutions

Darren Dupriest is the founder and CEO of Validity Screening Solutions, an enterprise technology company specializing in background screening, substance abuse testing, and occupational health services.

Since graduating with a B.B.A. in finance in 1991, Dupriest has been actively involved with the University of Miami. He has supported various areas across the U, including athletics as a Hurricane Club member, and student affairs as the naming donor of the Ibis Yearbook editor-in-chief's office at the Shalala Center and his most recent commitment to naming a lobby entrance in the new Lakeside Village.

Tapped into Iron Arrow and the Order of Omega in 1989, Dupriest further supports his alma mater by serving on the Alumni Association Board of Directors since 2016.

Dupriest and his wife, Noreen, are also active philanthropists in their native Kansas City. Their primary charge has been to support organizations that provide educational and artistic resources to underserved youth.
