

SILVIA A. RODRIGUEZ, B.B.A. '82
Community Volunteer

Silvia Rodriguez is a community volunteer currently serving on several non-profit boards and executive committees, including Catholic Charities Diocese of Charlotte and the Arts Council of Winston-Salem and Forsyth County, as well as the advisory board and finance committee at the Ronald McDonald House of Winston-Salem. She is a member of the board of trustees and executive committee of Belmont Abbey College and the University of Miami President's Council. Rodriguez is an active member, speaker, and volunteer at Saint Leo the Great Catholic Church and is a Dame in the Order of Malta.

She previously served on the boards of directors and executive committees of the Ronald McDonald House of Winston-Salem, SECCA Foundation, and YWCA of Winston-Salem. She also served on the Saint Thomas University School of Theology Advisory Council in Miami and KPMG Family for Literacy in Greensboro, and led various fundraising committees and finance-related projects.

Rodriguez holds a Bachelor of Business Administration in accounting from the University of Miami. She is a Certified Public Accountant and a Chartered Global Management Accountant, and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Over the years she has held various management positions in public accounting and the banking industry, provided consulting services to various large institutions, co-owned a start-up technology company, and taught as an adjunct professor of accounting at Wake Forest University School of Business.

Rodriguez is married to Jose, also a University of Miami alumnus, and they have three grown children. She enjoys spending time with her family, Bible studies and research, traveling, art, and reading.
